

The FCC should not support the Consumer Banking Association petition to allow federal pre-emption of Wisconsin's No Call Law. Wisconsin's No Call law is very effective in eliminating unwanted telemarketing calls to consumers. This law has been supported by millions of Wisconsinites. The FCC should support state's rights to have No Call laws that are stronger than the federal law.